

Analytics Share

i Share

With the Sharing Function you can share an Analytics Project with other users.

Click on the button  to add a user to the current project.

Click on the button  to remove a user with access rights from the current project (The project creator can't be removed).

Input Field	Description
User	Selection of the user who has to be added to the current project. Only users from teams can be added.
Access Rights	Write The user has write access. He can modify the project.
	Read The user has read access. He sees the whole project but can't modify it.